

Keep My Name Out of Your Mouth

Hot Hot Heat

We met doing a dance.

Cha cha cha, cha cha.

It was an encounter I'm not likely to remember.

I said keep my name out of your mouth.

There was sabotage in the fuselage of that 747 heart of yours.

I set the bomb but it went off wrong and my parachute saved the day.

You could have seen your eyes go red like this guy.

I can't swim but I'd watch you die trying.
