Like a Drug

Palisades

I know deep down that this isnâ€™t good for me
I know your love is a battlefield

Like a drug, I just canâ€™t get enough
Like a drug, I just canâ€™t give you up
Like a drug, I just canâ€™t get enough
Like a drug, I just canâ€™t give you up

Lately all these situations
Keep getting me in every confrontation
I feel the tension in your body rising up again
We always end up saying that weâ€™re better off as friends
Lately every time you wanna change
We keep getting twisted up in wicked games

But maybe if I try to close my eyes,
Itâ€™ll bring me back when we were more alive

But I know
Deep down that this isnâ€™t good for me
I know
Deep down that Iâ€™m scared Iâ€™ll never leave
Cause youâ€™ve been using me
When you know that Iâ€™m weak
Well Iâ€™ve had enough of these wounds
I know
Your love is a battlefield

Run that shit back

Like a drug, I just canâ€™t get enough
Like a drug, I just canâ€™t give you up
Like a drug, I just canâ€™t get enough
Like a drug, I just canâ€™t give you up

Save me from this temptation
Itâ€™s killing me and I donâ€™t wanna face it
Time after time we find ourselves on a different page
Look at the signs and draw the line and go our separate ways

Someone turned out all the lights
Thereâ€™s no bringing us back to life
But maybe if I try to close my eyes,
Itâ€™ll bring me back when we were more alive

But I know
Deep down that this isnâ€™t good for me
I know
Deep down that Iâ€™m scared Iâ€™ll never leave
Cause youâ€™ve been using me
When you know that Iâ€™m weak
Well Iâ€™ve had enough of these wounds
I know
Your love is a battlefield

I think Iâ€™m better off alone
Iâ€™m doing better on my own
So let it be
I think Iâ€™m better off alone
Iâ€™m doing better on my own
So let it be

But I know
Deep down that this isnâ€™t good for me
I know
Deep down that Iâ€™m scared Iâ€™ll never leave
Cause youâ€™ve been using me
When you know that Iâ€™m weak
Well Iâ€™ve had enough of these wounds
I know
Your love is a battlefield

Like a drug, I just canâ€™t get enough
Like a drug, I just canâ€™t give you up
Like a drug, I just canâ€™t get enough
Like a drug, I just canâ€™t give you up
