There for You

Clannad

Everything is foolhardy
And never is so good
Who will need an explanation
If all is understoodThis time has come again
Its all shining through
This one will be forever
And Ill be there for youIt was just midnight
Feeling was so high
Dancing on the crest of a wave
Your eyes met mine
Leaving those cares behind us
Dancing in the moodThis time has come again
Its all shining through
This one will be forever
And Ill be there for youA certain combination
Near impossible to find
Rolling on a stormy weather
Such a fine line
Striving to a seventh heaven
Knowing that we couldThis time has come again
Its all shining through
This one will be forever
And Ill be there for youThis time has come again
Its all shining through
This one will be forever
And Ill be there for youThis time has come again
Its all shining through
This one will be forever
And Ill be there for you
