Summer Never Came

SayWeCanFly

If you ever need some Love
I'll give you mine, I'll give you mine, I'll give you mine
Because you remind me of the things that
Make me smile, make me smile, make me smileBecause summer never came and autumn went away
But I will always and forever feel the same
You are my heart, you are my bones
You keep me safe when I'm alone
You are the rain against my skin
You are the love I'm falling in
I wanna hold you close
I just wanna hold you closeAnd never let you goI will always try my best but if we don't Make it through, make it through, make it through Well, that spot inside my chest will still
Belong to you, belong to you, belong to youBecause summer never came and autumn went away
But I will always and forever feel the same
You are my heart, you are my bones
You keep me safe when I'm alone
You are the rain against my skin
You are the love I'm falling in
I just wanna hold you closeAnd never let you go
