You Talk Too Much

Run Dmc

Shut upYou talk too much
You talk too much
You talk too much
You talk too muchHey, you over there, I know about your kind
You're like the Independent Network News on Channel 9
Everywhere that you go, no matter where you are at
I said, "You talk about this, and you talk about that"When the cat took your tongue
I say you took it right back
Your mouth is so big
One bite would kill a Big MacYou talk too much
You never shut up
I said, "You talk too much"
Homeboy you never shut upYou talk about people, you don't even know
And you talk about places, you never go
You talk about your girl, from head to toe
I said, "Your mouth's moving fast and your brain's moving slow"You talk too much
You never shut up
I said, "You talk too much"
Homeboy you never shut upYou're the instigator, the orator of the town
You're the worst when you converse, just a big mouth clown
You talk when you're awake, I heard you talk when you sleep
Has anyone ever told you, that talk is cheap?You talk too much
You never shut, up
I said, "You talk too much"
Homeboy you never shut upTalking is the one thing, that you can do best
You told the cavity creeps, to watch out for Crest
You never have the story, right and exact
And then you always try to bore me, with your yakkity yakYou talk too much
And then you never shut up
I said, "You talk too much"
Homeboy you never shut upEveryday you are out fighting someone in the street
And you're always fighting someone you know ya can't beat
Then you wonder how, you got in this mess
Just think of what you said, then take a guessYou talk too much
You never shut up
I said, "You talk too much"
Homeboy you never shut upYou're always spreading rumors, whether bad or good
You're the damn Walter Cronkite of the neighborhood
The Barbara Walters, and the Howard Cosell

You always come around, with a story to tellYou talk too much
And then you never shut up
I said, "You talk too much"
Homeboy you never shut upI said it's everybody's business that you love to mind
And talkin' to you, is like dropping a dime
You're spreading the word, like it is your job
You should be a stool pigeon, who works for the mobYou talk too much
Then you never shut up
I said, "You talk too much"
Homeboy you never shut upA big blabbermouth, that's what you are
If you were a talk show host, you'd be a star
I said your mouth is big, size extra large
And when you open it, it's like my garageYou talk too much
And then you never shut up
I said, "You talk too much"
Homeboy you never shut upYou always like to gossip, just like a girl
You talk so damn much, it's outta this world
When you're reincarnated, in your second life
You won't be a man, you'll be a nagging wifeYou talk too much
Then you never shut up
He said, "You talk too much"
Homeboy you never shut upShut up
Shut upTwenty-five hours, eight days a week
Thirteen months outta year, is when you speak
I'm tired of listening to the garbage you talk
Why don't you find a short pier, and take a long walkYou talk too much
Then you never shut up
I said, "You talk too much"
Homeboy you never shut upYou talk too much
You could be, out of breath
You talk too much
Man you naggin' me to deathYou talk too much
Tired of hearing you speak
You talk too much
Eight days a weekYou talk too much
Then you never shut up
I said, "You talk too much"
Why don't you ever shut upYou talk too much
Then you never shut up
I said, "You talk too much"
Homeboy you never shut up
