Lookin' for Love

Radical Something

Im looking for someone
Oh, oh yeah!
Oh some love!
I'm hangin' round this city full of people that dont get me
And Im tryin' real hard but they forget me, shake my hands and pretend they never met me!
I wish that I could be welcomed in the arms that were a little more accepting.
You stare it right through me, oh,
And now I wanna say excuse me,
Is there something here about me, that you find so damn amusing?
It's my style? No, I guess its just my luck
That Im stuck in the same damn rut that you gud.I said Im looking for some love right now
Can somebody help me in this town?
I said Im looking for some love right now
Can somebody help me out?
Singing uhuu oh, uhuu oh, uhuuu oh, uhuu ohJust another dark day, bright lights illuminate the night
Like runaway girls in the lights live a nice life.
Im reaching out to all of that, explaining how to make it
And hoping one day that they create it.
Cause beauty is in your heart, let it out, let it be
If you love the world around you, then your life will be complete.
We fight all the same damn enemies
Were on the same team, our any of us worth it if we don't compete?I say Im looking for some love right now
Can somebody help me in this town?
I said Im looking for some love right now
Can somebody help me out?
Singing uhuu oh, uhuu oh, uhuuu oh, uhuu oh
