Winterhearted

Xandria

I was a fool for what I thought was love
And I tried my best to keep up what we had
We had a vision, no, I had a vision
And now I've to see that the vision is deadOne of us is winterhearted
One of us is cold as ice
One of us is breaking hearts
And it's not me, not meOne of us is winterhearted
One of us is cold as ice
One of us is breaking hearts
It's not me, not meI was romantic, so silly and blind
I told the world that true love had a name
But all that is left now
Is pity and shameOne of us is winterhearted
One of us is cold as ice
One of us is breaking hearts
It's not me, not meOne of us is winterhearted
One of us is cold as ice
One of us is breaking hearts
It's not me, not meOne of us is winterhearted
One of us is cold as ice
One of us is breaking hearts
And it's not me, not meOne of us is winterhearted
One of us is cold as ice
One of us is breaking hearts
It's not me, not meOne of us is winterhearted
One of us is cold as ice
One of us is breaking hearts
It's not me, not me
