Jade

Midnight Paper Heist

She says,
"Somedays it's too hard to hold this skeleton up,"
Circle of smoke, lovers, they choke
They interrupt

She's a constellation, she's a tattooed grin
Needle and ink, my heart sinks
When it breaks the skin

Beautiful girl, you need to go to sleep
I don't trust you with this heavy stuff in your bloodstream
I don't trust you with this heavy stuff in your bloodstream

Ah, Ooh
Ah, Ooh
Jade
J-J-J-Jade

The boy on the speaker sings about being young
Camouflage, third car crash
You're playing dumb

But i'll sit in the passenger seat until you talk
Cherry lips, rooftop kiss
Electric shock

Beautiful girl you need to go to sleep
I don't trust you with this heavy stuff in your bloodstream
I don't trust you with this heavy stuff in your bloodstream

Ah, Ooh
Ah, Ooh
Jade
J-J-J-Jade

Beautiful girl, you need to protect your love
I don't trust these creatures in the streets
They're eating you up

They've got pastel hair and they're bleeding everywhere and

They're eating you up
They've got pastel hair and they're bleeding everywhere,
Protect your love

Ah, Ooh
Ah, Ooh
Jade
J-J-J-Jade

I tell Jade to call on the way, act like a grown up
She cries and she yells, says "It hurts like hell,"
And she's breaking up
