

Let Me Take The Heartache (off Your Hands)

Clay Walker

Once again, he's left you here crying
And it hurts me to see him hurt you this way
And once again, here I am trying
To make the tears disappear from your face for your sake
Let me take that heartache off your hands
You've stood more than one heart should stand
Don't give up on love till you give me a chance
Let me take that heartache off your hands
These shoulders were made for you to cry on
If you need them, they're yours any time
These arms are yours to try on
I'll make sure they fit you just right, they'll hold you tight
Let me take that heartache off your hands
You've stood more than one heart should stand
Don't give up on love till you give me a chance
Let me take that heartache off your hands
Don't give up on love till you give me a chance
Let me take that heartache off your hands
