

Yacha

Sinkane

You gonna keep goin' 'lone
'Til someone love you
You want attention
But what you need is love
It's just sad luck for your love
You gonna keep goin' 'lone
'Til someone love you
You lack affection
And you need that love
It's a sad love
You gonna keep goin' 'round
'Til you love somebody
You run in circles and they're closin' in,
Constrictin' your loveless love life
You can have it all!
Or do you wanna be faultless and far away?
Or do you wanna get high and mighty?
Or do you wanna be walled up, guarded, safe?
Or do you wanna just hide away?
Heya, you can have it, if you're down,
Place yourself back on the ground and get it
Heya, you can get it, if you're down,
Place yourself here on the ground and manage
Heya, you can get down
