To Get Love (You Must Give Love)

Blue Magic

True love is here for you, no matter who you are
You never have to wish on any kind of star
The love you hide is right outside your doorstep
And if you don't forget, what's in your heart

Chorus
You know to get love, you must give love
To keep love, you must share love
To know love, you must show who your loving, with

The gift of love was sent for, everyone to share
And love sends its melody of music in the air
The good you do, repays you in abundance
The love you wanted, to come to you, but still

Chorus
To get love, you must give love,
To keep love, you must share love,
To know love, you must show, who your loving, with

The love you hide is right outside your doorstep
And if you don't forget, what's in your heart

Chorus
You know to get love, you must give love
To keep love, you must share love

To get love, to give love, to keep love, to share love, i want it all
And just because you has stayed by my side
I'll swallow everything, even my pride
Even in winter, autumn, or spring
Loving you, loving you, is everything
Because i feel so much inside
Yes i will , yes i will, swallow my pride
Even in winter, autumn, or spring
Loving you, loving you, is everything
To get love, to give love, to keep love, to share love, i want it all
Even in winter, even in autumn, on a sunny spring
Giving me the love that you bring
Cause loving you, such an everyday thing

And i feel so much inside
Yes i will, yes i will, yes i will, swallow my pride
Even in winter, autumn, summer, or spring
Cause your love means, every, every, every, everything to me

To get love, to give love, to keep love, to share love, i want it all
To get love, to give love, to keep love, to share love, i want it all
Even in winter, and autumn, and springtime

When ever you give a smile

To get love, to give love, to keep love, to share love, you gave it all
