

Time for Tea

Madness

Scouring through the wasteland with an urge to take anything that comes into view only ten more puffs until bedtime
Ive found eating so time consuming "Willie oh Willie", she cried its time for tea
Willie, oh where in hell has he gone?
Its time for tea South of the wasteland at your DIY
The inconsiderate rings his till Offering plans of easy credit
Claims hell cause a killing in the school half term "Willie oh Willie", she cried its time for tea
Willie, oh where in hell has he gone?
Its time for tea And welly well, well, what have I found here?
A hiding place made by Frigidaire
I think Ill try it and give my mates a scare
Theyll all be searching neither here nor there "Willie oh Willie", she cried its time for tea
Willie, oh where in hell has he gone?
Its time for tea Long depress of autumn breeze
Sucking on the rubber back teeth
Plays into the hand of the hardware man
Who selfishly, I dont care
