MY DARKEST HOUR

Scary Kids Scaring Kids

Let me up, let me out
I am suffocating, I can't live without
This all behind me
Is this almost over now?The longest night my darkest hour
Where you will find me
Paralyzed and dying
From the truthYou left me at the altar
My heart in my hand
I am tired and broken
Haunted by memories of
The life you've stolen
I am tired and brokenYou left me at the altar
My heart in my hand
(You left me [Incomprehensible])
In my hand
(You left me! And I won't forget!)Let me out, let me out
Lips are trembling as I cannot make a sound
My love betrays me
Is it almost over nowThe walls caved in, the roof fell down
And I am finally
Tired of the lying
And the cloud that follows youYou left me at the altar
My heart in my hand
I am tired and broken
Haunted by memories of
The life you've stolen
I am tired and brokenYou left me at the altar
My heart in my hand
(You left me and I won't forget!)
In my hand
(You left me with my heart in my hand, I won't forget!)You left me breathless
You left me scared
But you're all that never kept me wrong
When you were hereRight now my only hope is to take back what you've stolen
(My life will go on without you)
Right now my only hope is to take back what you've stolen
(My life will go on without you)You left me at the altar
My heart in my hand
I am tired and broken

Haunted by memories of
The life you've stolen
(You left me! And I won't forget!)You've stolen, you've stolen
(You left me [Incomprehensible])
You've stolen, you've stolen
(You left me [Incomprehensible])
(I will not forget!)
