Black Gold

Houndmouth

Oliver Asley Lane
He was a quarter the way insane
But he ain't to blame
'Cause with a trust fund like that I'd be the sameHis father was the engine
And his mother was the light
She had a pension
And valued money over time
I used to see his sister
Her name was Jenny Gasoline
I used to see her picture
On the cover of a dirty magazine
But she looked best when she was mineSugar don't you worry
Don't you shed a tear
They've got enough black gold
For another year
We'll just have to wait and see
If they've got enough
If they've got enough
For you and meThere's been an accident on 23rd and Preston
Someone got arrested
And all them brokers
They be broken in the park
And all them liquids that they're choking on is dark Darker than a Georgia night with a heavy heart.Sugar don't you worry
Don't you shed a tear
They've got enough black gold
For another year
We'll just have to wait and see
If they've got enough
If they've got enough
For you and
Just bought some octane
Cut my dollar in half
You should try it out sometime
Oh yeah
There's nothing like going way too fast Way too fastSugar don't you worry

don't you shed a tear
well just have to wait and see
if they've got enough
they've got enough
one more time
for you and me
