Somebody Else's Lover

Total Touch

CHORUS:
I will never dedicate my love to somebody else's lover
Just didn't wanna hear your lies, but first I had to discover
I forgot to look in your eyes and now I have to suffer
No, I will never ever fall in love with somebody else's loverSomebody help me
Somebody teach me
Somebody tell me what to do
How should I handle you
I may be heartless
To feel so injurious
I've given the matter do consideration,
And know for sure thatCHORUSWhy did you deceive me
You say you didn't want to hurt me
But why then did you hold me tight
You knew it would break me
Why is it that I've chosen the wrong way
Which then brought me to you
But now that I've been there
I should have know better andCHORUSI will never ever give my soul to somebody else's lover
How could I believe it, fallen for your lies
I know for sure that I will look in your eyes
More than a moment
I will ignore my deepest feelings insideNo I will never (Dedicate my love to somebody else's lover)
Just didn't believe in your lies
(But first I had to discover)
Forgot to look in your eyes
And now I have to whoaoaoa
(No, I will never ever fall in love with somebody else's lover)
(Somebody else's lover (3x))
Somebody else's lover
