

Stairwells

Nick Pitera

The sun is finally fallin' I can feel it slowly slip away tonight
I'm gonna give this song I'm holding in a fighting chance once out of sight
Out of mind and on my own
In a stairwell all alone
Where I'm at peace I sing tonight to ease the pain
And I sing out loud without restraint
This melody I play is meant for no one
Nothing's ever made me feel this whole
Tonight's for me
As I sing in these stairwells
In these stairwells I sing for me
I sing for me I've come to terms that I may never see my name
Up there in shining lights
But that don't mean that here and now won't be enough
For me to feel alright
Dreams are more than just their end
And I won't stand here and pretend
That I don't have all that I need I sing tonight to ease the pain
And I sing out loud without restraint
This melody I play is meant for no one
Nothing's ever made me feel this whole
Tonight's for me
As I sing in these stairwells
In these stairwells I sing for me
I sing for me It's time to erase the doubt
That's breakin' me and takin' me down
And it's time to free the light inside
Don't matter if I'm terrible, unbearable
I don't really care 'cause I hear with my heart
So I, I, I, I, I sing tonight to ease the pain
And I sing out loud without restraint
This melody I play is meant for no one
Nothing's ever made me feel this whole
Tonight's for me
As I sing in these stairwells
In these stairwells I sing for me
I sing for me
