This Is It

Scotty McCreery

Way up in the mountains, four thousand feet high There's a trail through the trees to a cliff where Carolina meets the skyOh, and there's a view I just can't describe
No, I'm not there yet, just a few more steps, baby wait
Okay, you can open your eyesThis is it, this is now, this is what I've been talking about Looking out, can't you see forever?
Take my hand, just take it in
This is a moment we won't forget
On top of the world, here, together
If there ever was a time for a perfect kiss, this is it
Girl I know that you've been waiting and talking to your friends Wondering if and wondering where and wondering when Well I've been waiting too, holding on to this ring
For the right words to say, for the right time and place, for me to get on one kneeThis is it, this is now, this is what I've been talking about
Looking out, can't you see forever?
Take my hand, just take it in
This is a moment we won't forget
On top of the world here together
If there ever was a time for a perfect kiss, well this is it
This is itNow you're walking down the aisle
And I can't help but smile
This is it, this is now, it's what I've been talking about Looking out, I can see forever
So take my hand, just take it in
This is a moment we won't forget
On top of the world, here, together
Surrounded by our family and our friends
If there ever was a time for a perfect kiss
This is it
This is it
