

My Best

Vanessa Carlton

we scream and shout and try to make it last though it didnt work out, i dont love you any less my lover or friend, i wont ever tell our secreats safe an unspoken citadel and in these broken times, well, its so easy to forget so i sing to remind, upon my shoulder you can rest cause ill always give you my best a sidewalks path leads me to you though we dont look back we hold on to a truth and in these broken times i promise i will not forget though your not mine apou your sholder i can rest cuase you always give me your best like a promise kept its like you never left
and though its been so long, i cant of ever seem to forget all it takes is a song and i could swear i hear your steps down the hall echoes a past that leaves an ache, its never left cause i gave you my best
