Storm Of Nails

Lisa Marie Presley

It's been a long highway
Where do I get off and drive away
I'm looking for a sign that should say
When you've had enough, exit this way
If only I were a gopher now
I'd dig a hole and I'd not come out
And on the forecast for today
A storm of nails headed your way
Man it's gonna rain rain rain
And on my forehead does it say
Unleash all hounds of hell this way
Bite until she's lame lame lame
Too much on my plate
How much will it take before it breaks
I'm looking for a sign that should say when you get fed up
Throw it this way

If only I were a cat right now, meow
I'd look around and go lay back down
And on the forecast for today
A storm of nails headed your way
Man it's gonna rain rain rain
And on my forehead does it say
Unleash all hounds of hell this way
Bite until she's lame lame lame
What is it now, oh you don't say better get the hammer out today
What is it now, oh you don't say, better get the hammer out today
And on the forecast for today
A storm of nails headed your way
Man it's gonna rain rain rain
And on my forehead does it say
Unleash all hounds of hell this way
Bite until she's lame lame lame
