

The State I'm In

Leigh Nash

South of Waco late last night
I saw two figures in the light
Driving in from San Antone
It was you there dancing
With some old hank and hair and bone
I thought you were alone
Don't underestimate the state I'm in
Six generations lone star proud
I may seem quiet but this might get loud
Honey go get your sleep
You're tangled up with me in Texas now
Glad I caught you by surprise
I see the fear there in your eyes
By the looks of her I guess
You must be a drunken mess
And picked her up where the pickin's slim
And money wearin'thin
Don't underestimate the state I'm in
Six generations lone star proud
I may seem quiet but this might get loud
Honey go get your sleep
You're tangled up with me in Texas now
Spanish stuff
Don't underestimate the state I'm in
Six generations lone star proud
I may seem quiet but this might get loud
Honey go get your sleep
You're tangled up with me in Texas now go get your sleep
you're in too deep in Texas now
