

It's Just Love

Wetton / Manzanera

There's something about this moment
Something about the way I feel
I know it can be real what's deep inside

Give me a smile to tell me
Just what the frown was for before
When I see through your eyes, an open door

It's just love
Love can break your heart
It's just love
But it hits you like a poison dart

It's just love
Love can break your heart
It's just love
Love can break your heart

Thinking about this feeling
It's gone to my head, it's got me reeling
I'm just amazed that you should care

It's just love
Love can break your heart
It's just love
And love can tear us all apart

It's just love
Love can break your heart
It's just love
Love can break your heart

It's just love
It's just love

It's just, just, just, just, just, just love
And love can break your heart
It's just love
And love can break your heart
It's just love

And love can break your heart
It's just love
And love can break your heart
It's just love
And love can break your heart
It's just love
And love can break your heart
It's just love
And love can break your heart
It's just love
And love can break your heart
It's just love
And love can break your heart
