

Stay In Luv

QUARTERBACKS

when i fell in love
i wrote a song every week
    then i stayed in love
and it was like i fell asleep
    the silence was so perfect i didn't want to speakthen i woke up and your absence
    begged for sound
    and i tried to find a way to fill the emptiness i'd found but at first
    i could only whisper
    but then the murmur
    got louder
i can't seem to stay in love
i can't seem to stay in love
    i guess my heart
    just beats too fast
    or whatever
