Jealous Moon

Mark Lemhouse

Saw her there in the fading light
In full bloom on a summer night
Nothing but the man in the moon
Was standing in my wayI was drunk on the warm sweet air
Tangled up in her raven hair
I should've known but I didn't care
She'd be gone by the light of day'Cause her eyes were shining brighter
Than the light of the jealous moon
And the stars fell all around her
Well, did I see you smilin'When the morning came too soon
Did I see you smilin'
Jealous moon, jealous moonNow the sun dances across my room
I can smell the wine and her soft perfume
The only thing that lets me know
That an angel wasn't hereYou know I had this crazy dream
She flew away on stolen wings
But all she took was a pair of jeans
When see saw that the coast was clearAnd her eyes were shining brighter
Than the light of the jealous moon
And the stars fell all around her
Well, did I see you smilin'When the morning came too soon
Did I see you smilin'
Jealous moon, jealous moonAnd her eyes were shining brighter
Than the light of the jealous moon
And the stars they fell all around her
Well I thought I saw you smilin'When the morning came too soon
Did I see you smilin'
Jealous moon, jealous moon
Jealous moon, jealous moon
