

This Crazy Love

The Oak Ridge Boys

It'll lead you on, it'll run you off
Hurt twice as long when you're double-crossed
It's hard to trust, this crazy love It's a breaking heart at the bitter end
Bouncing back just to fall again
It's winning big a losing touch Oh, this crazy love
Oh, this crazy love It gives and it takes when it's strong
Nothing takes its place when it's gone
First it's good news and then it's goodbye
But the good is worth the tears that you cry It'll fly you high, it'll shoot you down
Toss you hard in the lost and found
It pays love, this crazy love It's a game of hearts, jokers wild
Come on look or a tender smile
Raise your hand or call your bluff Oh, this crazy love
Oh, this crazy love It'll lead you on, it'll run you off
Hurt twice as long when you're double-crossed
It's hard to trust, this crazy love It's a breaking heart at the bitter end
Bouncing back just to fall again
It's winning big, a losing touch Oh, this crazy love
Oh, this crazy love
Oh, this crazy love
Oh, this crazy love Oh, this crazy love
Oh, this crazy love
