

When I See You Again

Fleetwood Mac

When I see you again
Will it be the same?
When I see you again
Will it be over? When I see you again
Will your great eyes still say "What's the matter, baby?"
What's the matter, baby?
What's the matter, baby, baby, baby?
What's the matter, baby?
What's the matter, baby?
What's the matter, baby, baby? So she walks slowly down the hall
There are many doors in the hallway
And she stares at the stairs
Ooh there are many things to stare at these days If she sees him again
Will your very best friend
Will your very best friend
Oh, have been replaced by some other? What's the matter, baby
What's the matter, baby, baby, baby
What's the matter, baby
What's the matter, baby
What's the matter, baby, baby And the dream says I want you
And the dream is gone
So she stays up nights on end
Well at least there is a dream left If I see you again
Will it be over?
If I see you again
Will it be the same? If I see you again
Will it be over?
Again and again
Over and over
