So Loud

The Wigg Report

Quiet down, don't you even make a sound
Mind your mouth and do just as you're told
I love to stir up shit with every word I ever spit
That's right if it's too loud then you're too fuckin' old
Here we goTurn it up, can you hear me?
Turn it up, or do you turn away?
Turn it up, you'll never turn me down
And I can't even hear you 'cuz I'mSo loud, so here we go now
So loud, so here we go now
So loud, till here we go now
So loud, so here we go now
So loud, so here we go now
So loud, till here we go nowAll I need is the bass and the beat
And the bones beneath my skin
I'd sell my soul for rock 'n' roll
And let those lovin' snake eyes send me home (send me home)Turn it up, can you hear me?
Turn it up, or do you turn away?
Turn it up, you'll never turn me down
And I can't even hear you 'cuz I'mSo loud, so here we go now
So loud, so here we go now
So loud, till here we go now
So loud, so here we go now
So loud, so here we go now
So loud, till here we go now (here we go now)Turn it up, can you hear me?
Turn it up, or do you turn away?
Turn it up, you'll never turn me down
And I can't even hear you 'cuz I'mSo loud, so here we go now
So loud, so here we go now
So loud, till here we go now
So loud, so here we go now
So loud, so here we go now
So loud, till here we go now (here we go now)
(So loud) So loud, so it's a showdown
(So loud) So loud, so here we go now
So loud, till here we go now
(So loud) So loud, so it's a showdown (So loud)
(So loud) So loud, so here we go now
So loud, till here we go now (here we go now)
