Break Me Gently (incidental)

Doves

Walk inside, gets noticed
Fears conspire, they won't go away
And I know, and I see
You'll be breaking hearts again
You break me gently
Break me gently
Break me gently
Break my fall in vain
Pain won't go, rest in peace
And I look, and I see
You could be breaking souls again
And I see me, break me gently
Break me gently
Break me gently
