

Heart of Tokyo

Katana

Coming from the west, searching the east
Looking for love, a new life to lead
I've got a hunger for lust, I'm a child of the light
I've fought Hell just to enter Heaven tonight
Lonely on the road, searching this town
In a faraway land where the sun goes down
Like ecstasy, it's haunting me
Hear I am

I will find my soul
In the heart of Tokyo
Live the dream and live my life
I will find my love
In the heart of Tokyo
Come on, baby, I'm coming alive

Shadows come alive crawl into the light
Out of the pit where my sweet love lies
Battering hearts, the dream is real
Screaming voices fill the air
Lonely on the road, roaming the town
In a faraway land where the show goes down
Hell unleashed rocks far east
Here I am

I will find my soul
In the heart of Tokyo
Live the dream and live my life
I will find my love
In the heart of Tokyo
Come on, baby, I'm coming alive

I will find my soul
In the heart of Tokyo
Live the dream and live my life
I will find my love
In the heart of Tokyo
Come on, baby, I'm coming alive
