The Love

Smokingroove

{One, two, one, two, three, four}
Every face I see reminds me of you
Nothing I can touch feels the way you do
Knowing you are mine is the best thing in my life
Baby, I'm alive completely
This is the love, this is the love
This is the love, the love you've always dreamed of
This is the love, the hand that fills your cup
The wings that lift you up, so high, so close
Two can be as one, this is the love
This is the love
Ohh, everyone has somethin' no one else can see
Every breath, every touch, every heartbeat's givin' me
The feelin' that I've known you in another place in time
A transcendental doorway opens up and hand in hand we shine
And if I'm down, she will stand there tall, hold on, hold on
And if you're down, I will build a wall around you to hold you

I'm so glad I found you
This is the love, this is the love
This is the love, the love you've always dreamed of
This is the love, the hand that fills your cup
The wings that lift you up, so high, so close
Two can be as one, this is the love
The love, this is the love
Every heartbeat, every shadow, every mountain in the morning
You can touch me while I'm dreaming, this is the love
Every evening in my bedroom, every ocean past the moon
And every sunset rise above
[Incomprehensible]Every heartbeat, every shadow, every mountain in the morning
You can touch me while I'm dreamin', this is the love
Every evening in my bedroom
