Dragon's Song

Blitzen Trapper

This is a rough interpretation of the lyrics, please post correctionsMake your way to the beat of the drum
Make your way to the beat of the drum
Pray this day may be best as one
Make your way to the beat of the drumHold me tight in the light of the running sun
Oh oh oh
The running sun
Oh oh oh
The running sun, my love
YeahMake your way to the crack of the guns
Up through the heat of the running sunsTreetops sway as they pray for the wind and the rain
Oh oh oh
Just what the earth can contain
Oh oh oh
Can we take the best as oneHands raised high through the gathering haze
Let the sun burn through to the ancient debates
You are half my heart set apart till the end of the age
Oh oh oh ohRiff twice, then soloMake your way to the beat of the drum
Pray this day may be best as oneHigh winds race to the place of the dragon's song
Oh oh oh
The dragon's song
Oh oh oh
The dragon's song, my loveHands raised high through the gathering haze
Let the sun burn through to the ancient debates
You are half my heart set apart till the end of the age
Oh oh oh ohRiff once, End
