There Is Life

Kelly Pease

THERE IS LIFE â€“ KELLY PEASE
Was I born just to die?
Was I given these gifts just to watch them pass by?
And have I toiled in vain?
Nothing but pain to show.
How long will Your face be hidden from me?
And how long will this biting wind last?
There is life on the other side for those who are brave enough to walk through this valley wide
There is life
There is joy in Him who leads us through pain for those who come to the table to be sustained
There is joy, there is life here in my suffering
Did my God come as a Man
Just to bleed from His side and His feet and His hands?
Did He come to make new from old?
Or is that just what Iâ€™m told?
I know He came so that the world would believe
In His light living in you and me.
There is life on the other side for those who are brave enough to walk through this valley wide
There is life, there is life
There is life on the other side for those who are brave enough to walk through this valley wide
There is life
There is joy in Him who leads us through pain for those who come to the table to be sustained
There is joy, there is life here in my suffering. +
There is life here in my suffering. +
