

Young Prisoner Dreams of Romance

Cold Cave

All my days are spent chasing you
I am up to my age
A sniper on standby
Deadly goodbye

All my days are spent catching rain
I'm mending the pain
The flickering light
Dancing goodnight

I could change
Break the chains
And I will
At night
I will think of you still

In a cage in my corner of hell
I wrapped my head
In bandages well
And the loneliest it ever gets
Is when the sun fucking sets
I need a cigarette

I changed
Begged for change
And I pray
I will see you
Someday
