

Just Like I Am

Landon Pigg

Her beauty is blinding but she means nothing wrong
She's looking for love just like I am
Amazing in the sunlight, a gift for a man
She's looking for love just like I am Just like I am, like I am
Just like I am, I am Hey, hey
All the best intentions are no match for your skin
Hey, hey
Well, how am I supposed to love you if I don't even know you She walks in the shadow of a beauty so bright
But she's looking for love just like I am
An obvious blessing but a curse in disguise
When you're looking for love Just like I am, like I am
Just like I am, I am Hey, hey
All my best intentions are no match for your skin
Hey, hey
You know I thought I knew what love was but sometimes I get confused
Sometimes I get confused, yeah, sometimes I get confused, yeah Hey, hey
All my best intentions are no match for your skin
Hey, hey
And how am I supposed to know you if I can't even love you Hey, hey
Hey, hey
Hey, hey
