

Rise Above This

Seether

Take the night and darken everything around me
Call the clouds and listen closely, I'm lost without you
Call your name everyday, when I feel so helpless
I'm fallen down but I'll rise above this, rise above this
Hate your mind, regrets are better left unspoken
For all we know this void will grow
And everything's in vain, distressing you, don't leave me open
Feels so right that I'll end this all before it gets me
Call your name everyday, when I feel so helpless
I'm fallen down, but I'll rise above this, rise above this
Call your name everyday when I seem so helpless
I'm fallen down but I'll rise above this rise, rise above this doubt
I'll mend myself before it gets me
I'll mend myself before it gets me
I'll mend myself before it gets me
Call your name everyday when I feel so helpless
I'm fallen down but I'll rise above this, rise above this
Forty eight ways to say that I'm feeling helpless
Fallen down and I'll rise above this, rise above this Rise above this, rise above this doubt
