

Hand Grenade

The Movieline

you dont talk to anyone you wont look at anyone but her and i dont think she's listening i doubt she remembers your name and you say, when will she notice me and you feel, like youre gonna break
and it feels, like a hand grenade that man, i'll never understand everyone's livin in the past instead of forgetting her you're always kissing her ass i know that there's not much to say so ill look stupid anyway
but you still play that game but i think the best way of moving on is to attack cause she's just a hand grenade so pull out the pin and throw it back
so ill look stupid anyway
like a hand grenade, like a hand grenade a hand grenade
