

Cheaper to Drink Alone

Black Stone Cherry

Straight off the plane from California
Knew the minute that I laid eyes on ya
Heart is gonna be as good as gold and
You're the kind that wanted it all Lit a wild fire in my bed
You took my wallet and you wrecked my head
Drank my bourbon burned my cigarettes
And now I don't feel nothing at all Chorus
I could rob a bank and beg her back
Break down and show her where the money's at
That girl loves diamonds and Cadillacs
Cheaper to drink
Cheaper to drink Yes you leave me more than hogrow
High heels and high by the cosmos
Wish it was but it ain't no joke
Cheaper to drink
Cheaper to drink
Cheaper to drink alone Well I guess I should have seen the warning
But you was everything I ever wanted
Always kept me coming back for more
And god I felt like taking you home You burn a memory in my head
Like shots of whiskey when they hit your chest
You loved me and let me in the red
And now I don't feel nothing but broke
Yeah broke I could rob a bank and beg her back
Break down and show her where the money's at
That girl loves diamonds and Cadillacs
Cheaper to drink
Cheaper to drink I could rob a bank and beg her back
Break down and show her where the money's at
That girl loves diamonds and Cadillacs
Cheaper to drink
Cheaper to drink

Songwriters

BRANDON KINNEY, JON LAWHON, CHRIS ROBERTSON, BEN WELLS, JOHN FRED

YOUNG Published by

Lyrics Â© Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>