

Madness Strikes At Midnight

Stratovarius

He's crawling out from the asylum, no
Under cover of the night
Insanity of his crazy mind
It's useless for you now to hide Walking the streets, someone's in sight
He's waiting for you in the night
Hiding in the shadows
Hiding in the alleys
He's ready to kill tonight So lock your doors and hide
And pray your God
'Cause you're not alone Years he spent in the cage
They did not help him at all
Now, today with the power of his rage
He's slaughtering people tonight Walking the streets someone's in sight
He's waiting for you in the night
Hiding in the shadows
Hiding in the alleys
He's ready to kill tonight So lock your doors and hide
And pray your God
'Cause you're not alone Madness strikes at midnight
Madness strikes at night Madness strikes at midnight
Madness strikes at night So lock your doors and hide
And pray your God
'Cause you're not alone Madness strikes at midnight
Madness strikes at night Madness strikes at midnight
Madness strikes at night Madness strikes at midnight
Madness strikes at night Madness strikes at midnight
Madness strikes at night
