

Beyond the Grave

Saxon

Are you standing on your own when the darkness closes in?
Can you hear the voices calling from within
Do you see the spirit world like a cold and frightened child
Or is your imagination running wild, running wild? Is there anybody out there?
We're waiting for a sign
Calling to the afterlife
Is anybody there? Beyond the grave
Beyond the grave On a breath of cold night air, the candle starts to dim
When shadows dance the walls start closing in
Does your fear begin to rise, well, are you paralyzed with fright?
Can they hear you screaming in the night? Is there anybody out there?
We're waiting for a sign
And calling to the afterlife
Is anybody there? Beyond the grave
Beyond the grave
Beyond the grave
Beyond the grave Is there anybody out there?
We're waiting for a sign
Calling to the afterlife
Is anybody there? Beyond the grave Are you standing on your own when the darkness closes in?
Can you hear the voices calling from within
Do you see the spirit world like a cold and frightened child
Or is your imagination running wild, running wild? Is there anybody out there?
We're waiting for a sign
Calling to the afterlife
Is anybody there? Is there anybody out there?
We're waiting for a sign
And calling to the afterlife
Is anybody there? Beyond the grave
Beyond the grave
Beyond the grave
