Hard Working Man

The Heroine

Daddy was a gambler, he spent his life taking risks
He worked hard with that hammer, made a living with clenched fists
Mama always cried for the things that he'd done
He got his loving on the run

Daddy was a gambler, he was a hard working man
Hard working man

Made it clear that he was blue collar
He worked hard for that mighty dollar
Mama always cried for the things that he'd done
He gave his loving on the run

Daddy was a gambler, he was a hard working man
Hard working man

Hard working man
Hard working man
Hard working man
Hard working man
