Little Stabs At Happiness

Fujiya & Miyagi

keep your friends at arms length its no coincidence that I've tasted pervasive patterns of negative excuseswe built shipwrecks out of relationships we used expletives as bandages a matchstick struck sparks a flame sparks a flame (extinct?)we invented little stabs at success we looked around, we haven't found it yet a spark extinguished before its ignited a spark never metwe attempted little stabs at happiness failed attempts at (?) we attempted little stabs at happiness failed attempts atwe built shipwrecks out of relationships
sparks a flame (?)we attempted little stabs at success
a spark never met
