One More Time

Brenda Lee

Got on my make up, I got on my brand new dress
Drivin' down the highway, lookin' at my best
I can see the motel sigh
Up ahead, where I will find another night of lovin' you
One more time

One more time, I'll be lovin' you
One more time, one more time
I will make believe your love is really mine
One more time in your embrace
One more time I'll hear you tell me
That you love me one more time

I tell myself our love is wrong
And that I'm never gonna win
But every time I say goodbye, memories begin
And then you touch me tenderly
While you're lyin' next to me
And I know that there will always by
One more time

One more time, I'll be lovin' you
One more time, one more time
I will make believe your love is really mine
One more time in your embrace
One more time I'll hear you tell me
That you love me one more time

One more time I'll hear you tell me
That you love me one more time
