Smoke

Seabound

We are addicted
Addicted to your habits
We are distressed when
YouÃ¢??re not around

Keep the fire burning
Keep the smoke coming
(Smoke)

Our days are wasted
If we don't receive your comfort
You cast a spell
You silence every sound

Brothers become enemies
Prepared for any felony
Craving for felicity
Ready for atrocity

You strike a match and you smile
And all I can do
Is smile together with you

You lace the wine with a single tear
You are the force I used to fear

The smell of gas is spreading
Yet all I can do
Is keep on smoking with you

Your eyes sparkle, you're sincere
You are the force I used to fear

Lost in reverie
I dream of sights I will never see

We are enchanted
By your need of protection
Soft and fragile

Sensitive ground

Keep the fire burning
Keep the smoke coming
(Smoke)

We are bewitched
By your deep understanding
And we will defend
The security we found

(You silence every sound)

Brothers become enemies
Ready for atrocity

You strike a match and you smile
And all I can do

You lace the wine with a single tear
You are the force I used to fear

The smell of gas is spreading
Yet all I can do
Is keep on burning for you

Your eyes sparkle, you're sincere

Lost in reverie
I dream of sights I will never see
I dream of words I will never hear
You are the force I used to fear
