

No One Wants It To Happen To You

Small Black

No one wants it
to happen to you
No one wants it
to happen
No one wants it
to happen to you Enter the room
the fog crept in your eyes made you float
Whether or not
it came as a surprise
you were sure
they were mistaken
No one wants it
to happen to you
No one wants it
to happen
news from the wall
take the ruins of spring again
the gaps may be closed
the visible escape
just a blur
the cold tap of the facts you realize
we live in the dark
we do what we can
the rest is up to chance
No one wants it to happen to you
No one wants it to happen
No one wants it
No one
