

Omen

Sam Smith

y comenta el tema.

I'm feeling something, something different When you left, the picture changed

I was blinded, I'm not envisioned

The same face in a different frame It's an omen

Caught my baby crying

Saw the silver lining

It must be an omen

Needed you to show me

Without you I am lonely My mind would rule my heart

I didn't pay attention to the light in the dark

It left me torn apart

But now I see your tears are an omen Oh-oh-oh-oh

Oh-oh-oh-omen

Oh-oh-oh-oh

Oh-oh-oh-omen You were waiting, I was vacant

You left before my eyes

Then it hit me, you're relocating

And I need you by my side It's an omen

Caught my baby crying

Saw the silver lining

It must be an omen

Needed you to show me

Without you I am lonely My mind would rule my heart

I didn't pay attention to the light in the dark

But now I see your tears are an omen My mind would rule my heart

I didn't pay attention to the light in the dark

But now I see your tears are an omen Oh-oh-oh-oh

Oh-oh-oh-omen

(Woah, now love)

Oh-oh-oh-oh

Oh-oh-oh-omen

(I didn't pay attention to the light in the dark) Oh-oh-oh-oh

Oh-oh-oh-omen

(But now I see your tears are an omen)

Oh-oh-oh-oh

Oh-oh-oh-omen

(Now I see your tears are an om-omen)

Oh-oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh-oh-omen
