I Won't Say Anything

Bad Religion

He looked just like a zookeeper in a human zoo
So I said hey man how the hell did they get to you Don't you know us animals need something to Then I flew
That's when he said

Hey, I can't deny it, but I won't say anything
Hey, I can't deny it, but I won't say anything
Hey, I can't deny it, but I won't say anything
Unless you ask it right

So I took my mean machine to the sacramental post
Some kid had spilled his wine on the holiest host
And I said ain't it funny that machines need a ghost
He made a toast

Hey, I can't deny it, but I won't say anything
Hey, I can't deny it, but I won't say anything
Hey, I can't deny it, but I won't say anything
Unless you ask it right

Riding to the cemetery in a righteous limousine
I plied the grim proprietor with milk and tangerines
And I said so you're short but are you brutish and mean
Then he screamed
That's when he said

Hey, I can't deny it, but I won't say anything
Hey, I can't deny it, but I won't say anything
Hey, I can't deny it, but I won't say anything
Unless you ask it right

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com written by GRAFFIN, GREG / GUREWITZ, BRETT Lyrics Â© Warner/Chappell Music, Inc.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/