

Oceans Between Us

The Downtown Fiction

Some say that we'll never make it
I know one day we can overtake it
And then we'll say, we don't have to worry
Call me, late at night to tell me that you love me
Crying cuz you're feeling so damn lonely
Waiting for the day
When we can hold on so tight and I'll tell you softly
There might be oceans between us
In my heart and my mind
We're gonna show 'em what we're made of
And if forever is not enough
Would you go down with me?
To the bottom of the sea
Sometimes, it's the best of memories that
I find, make me feel the worst and we can't rewind
Trapped inside the past
When all I want is to hold you, and hear you tell me (hear you tell me)
There might be oceans between us

In my heart and my mind
We're gonna show 'em what we're made of
And if forever is not enough
Would you go down with me?
To the bottom of the sea
They'll tell us we're crazy
And laugh in our face
They can struggle to tear us apart
Sure this horizon is hazy
We're pushing the pace
You won't know 'less you follow your heart
There might be oceans between us
In my heart and my mind
We're gonna show 'em what we're made of (show 'em what we're made of)
There might be oceans between us
In my heart and my mind
We're gonna show 'em what we're made of
And if forever is not enough
Would you go down with me?
Would you go down with me?
