No Mercy

The Stranglers

Everyday you're working like a slave
Sweating buckets hoping that you get it right
Will it be as tough tomorrow? Have to wait and see
Life shows no mercyEveryday your love is getting warmer
Just look at her and love her did you qet it right
Will she soothe your brow with kisses only meant for thee?
She'll show no mercy
She'll show no mercyAnd when you hold her close to you
Just when you're feeling good it's trueLife shows no mercy
Life shows no mercy
Life shows no mercy
Life shows no mercyEverybody has sorne secret wishes
Just keep your fingers crossed maybe they'll all come true
But don't worry if they just remain a fantasy
Life shows no mercyEverybody seems the same all over
The search is on for love and comfort constantly
If it comes your way tomorrow count yourself lucky
Life shows no mercy
Life shows no mercyAnd when you hold her close to you
Just when you're feeling good it's trueLife shows no mercy
Life shows no mercy
Life shows no mercy
It shows no mercyLife shows no mercy
Life shows no mercy
Life shows no mercy, no mercy
Life shows no mercy, no mercy
Life shows no mercy, no mercy
