Otherworld

Dio

Turn 'round slowly
Tell us, what you see?
Oh no, the fly got the spider
And now he's chasing me
Change comes slowly
But this is what you'll be
Somehow it snows in the summer
And the sun is freezing me, oh
Pain comes easy
If pleasure will let go
Oh, oh and I still remember
And this is how I know
Rain falls slowly
Here it cuts you down

Oh no, we're all one another
Oh no, I'm caught in a otherworld
Rainbows and blue skies are black and white
Killed in their sleep by the queen
We have forsaken beginnings
And taken the end, Amen
We've been forsaken beginnings
And given the end, Amen
Time moves slowly
But here it never ends
Oh, oh, we're all one another
Oh no, I'm caught in a otherworld
