

Carnivoracity

Avulsed

Precise hack to crush the neck
Hang upside down from a meat hook
Slow blood-lettingExcruciating suffocation
Trachea is deadly damaged
Anguishing expiration
Impossible to breathPhlebotomy in agony
Blood spurts on her face
Convulsing before her death
Rigor mortisProudly I contemplate my ration
Emaciated bloody prey
Morbid succulent consumption
Edible human carnageYou are considered
Only a piece of fleshQuartered and torn to pieces
Disemboweled, emptied of her guts
Entrails are put in a bucket
Fill my glass with cold pusMy knife cuts gluteal fillets
On a plate with bile sauce
Her heart lies on a tray
Eyes are incised with a forkCarnivoracity, cannibal ferocity
Carnivoracity, butchering atrocity
Carnivoracity, deranged for meat
Carnivoracity, I just want to eatButcher, sanguinary
Killer, flesh is my life
Animal and human meat
It's the same, all is rightInto the meat-grinding machine
Her rests are minced
Piles of chopped meat
Nothing is wastedThe foetus I've found into her womb
Is roasted in the oven
Before the birth
It's life is overBrain ice for dessert
Nothing left but bones and vessels
I've digested all her body
My stomach is her coffinCarnivoracity, cannibal ferocity
Carnivoracity, butchering atrocity
Carnivoracity, deranged for meat
Carnivoracity, I just want to eat
