For Far Too Long...

All Shall Perish

I won't listen to, your lies, any longer
Stop making excuses when you
Know damn well you're wrong
Just come to fucking' grips with your reality
Your words have plagued me all my lifeFor far too long, for far too longYour life is yours to control
Weakness is purely choice
Answers that you are searching for
Are all within yourself, useless fuck
Your words mean nothing to me
Save your breath
Your words are meaningless
The time is now your chains are fake
You're not held down
Break away from this shit
Don't look at me for sympathy
I've seen your ways I'll let you rot
I have Bled my scars
My wounds have healed
I have moved onWhat hasn't killed me has
Only made me strong
And I won't listen to, your lies, any longerYour life is yours to control
Weakness is purely choice
Answers that you are searching for
Are all within yourself
The time is now your chains are fake
You're not held down
I have bled, I have my scars
My wounds have healed
I have bled
